Fall in full swing at FSU Wesley Foundation

Diana Flagg
FSU Wesley Board of Directors

Another busy Fall Semester has begun at FSU. Even the football season is keeping dedicated Seminole Fans busy with four home games in September. The FSU Wesley Foundation, a United Methodist Campus Ministry, located at 705 W. Jefferson Street, is also abuzz with activity. Even Hurricane Isaac couldn't diminish the excitement of a new school year with over 800 students attending Wesley's annual "Welcome Back BBQ." Services have been enthusiastically attended as well with over 500 students at Wesley's Sunday morning services. Also, a second service on Monday evening has close to 150 attending those services. Wednesday Night is Community Night at Wesley where dinner is served and then small family group meetings are held with over 200 students participating in group Bible study. Wesley is open from 8 a.m. until midnight. Throughout the day you'll find students hanging out or studying in the Wesley Fellowship Hall. Also, at Wesley, there's a small chapel open 24/7 for students to spend time in prayer.

On October 5-7, students will have the opportunity to spend a weekend at the Laguna Beach Christian Retreat Center for a few days of fun, fellowship and spiritual growth. Last year, over 270 students attended. A lot is going on at Wesley and this is just the beginning of the Fall Semester. Soon the leadership at Wesley will begin planning for the first of several mission trips many of the students will take during the school year. The students and staff at Wesley are actively carrying out The Great Commission and making disciples for Christ. These young adults are the seeds for the continued growth of the United Methodist Church. The FSU Wesley Foundation needs your prayers and your support. Wesley has a budget of about $360,000 with over 2/3 of its budget dependent upon gifts and donations.

Here's where you can help. A special Wesley Dessert Fundraising Event will be held in Moor Hall, on November 3 at 7 p.m. There will be a program about Wesley, some professionally prepared desserts and beverages, a silent auction and a live auction. If you would like to attend this event and/or donate an item for the auction, please contact Diana Flagg at diflagg@centurylink.net or 850-566-2253 by Monday, October 29. Suggested auction items are: themed gift baskets, gift certificates, sporting event tickets, theatre tickets, artwork, services, hotel stays for two or more, beach house weeks/weekends, hunting trips, fishing trips, etc.

If you can't attend but would like to help support the FSU Wesley Foundation, you can make a donation online at www.FSUWESLEY.com or contact Wesley's office at 222-0251. In addition, if your employer participates in the United Way Campaign, please consider designating your contributions to the FSU Wesley Foundation. Thank you in advance for your support. Not only will you be investing in the continued growth and sustainability of the FSU Wesley Foundation but you will be investing in the future leaders of the United Methodist Church!

WAYNE'S WORDS

By E. Wayne Curry
Senior Pastor

Dear Friends,

I love this church!

Six months ago a couple of members felt a passion in their hearts to do something to help the homeless. After much prayer and research, inspired by their enthusiasm, we adopted the Hope Community transitional housing and renovated 15 rooms, purchased and installed new commercial washers and dryers, and painted and repaired six bathrooms.

I love this church!

On September 15th, we held our second annual Clothing Connection give-away. Started last year by a women's Lenten Study group who felt compelled to do something to tangibly exhibit "extravagant generosity", in this year's event, 9,000 items of clothing were given away to our friends in need.

I love this church!

On September 23rd, we celebrated Trinity's 188th Birthday! And what a wonderful day it was! We came together in one glorious service of worship to praise God for His blessings through all these years. We recognized and honored 117 members of our church who have been members for 50 years or more. Elen Parham (pictured at left), Mart Hill, Led Brown and Vernon Parramore, all who joined over 80 years ago, were with us. We welcomed new members into our church family. We heard heavenly music from our chancel choir and bell choir. And at the end of the service people came to the altar to share the commitment of their time and talent to one or more of the many outreach ministries of our church. After worship we gathered as a church family down in Moor Hall and did what we Methodists do so well...eat and fellowship together! The day culminated with a successful silent auction that raised nearly $5,000 for missions.

I love this church!

On October 3rd, the pastor of our sister church in Cuba, Pastor Dioselvis Sanchez, and his wife, Yamile, arrive and will be with us for a couple of weeks. We will have the chance to hear what God is doing in Cuba and explore ways we can renew our covenant together.

I love this church!

On October 20th, we send our mission team to Panajachel, Guatemala. The 25 member team will divide into a construction team, two medical teams, a dental team and a Vacation Bible School team.

I love this church! Why? Because you ARE the Church in all its fullness...worshiping, praying, studying, reaching in and reaching out, putting your faith into action in so many ways...all in the name of Jesus Christ and for the sake of His Kingdom.

I love being the pastor of this church!

You are loved,

Wayne

Music News for October

Mark Repasky
Director of Music

Perhaps you know someone who fits one of these descriptions. Maybe it's you!

- "I participated in an excellent choral program in high school, became a pretty good singer and really loved it."
- "I have a music degree but have not used my music training recently."

On a Mission: Carol Moore Will Speak Oct. 2

Linda Yates

While Trinity's United Methodist Women Ministry discusses ways each woman may be involved in mission alone or as part of a small mission team, Carol Hair Moore shows just how diverse missional outreach can be.

She will speak at the UMW luncheon meeting Tuesday, Oct. 2, in Moor Hall. She grew up in rural Live Oak where the antics of farm animals delighted her. Carol later learned a lot about children as a second grade school teacher, then as a mother and now a grandmother. These experiences were put to use as she wrote and published three children's books and is working on a fourth.

She will share her children's books and how the Lord is using her to teach children meaningful life lessons through writing and music. She will bring her books to sell, with the proceeds going to UMW mission programs. For more information, go to her website: iwishyouicecreamandcake.com.

The luncheon begins at 11:45 a.m. and is expected to end at 1. All women of the church are invited to share the fellowship and learn more about how they can become a part of the ministry. Reservations for lunch should be called to Nancy Kerce at 877-6546 by Sept. 28.

Executive Committee of UMW will meet at 10:30 that day in the Library.

Did you know that the blood that is donated through our blood drives at Trinity goes directly to patients in Tallahassee and that it is used within 48 hours of being collected? That is why there is always such an urgent need in our area. Since February 2012, when the blood mobile started coming to Trinity again on a regular basis, over 68 pints of blood have been collected.

CROP Walk - Ending Hunger One Step at a Time

Gloria Colvin

We Have it Good

At one time or another, most of us have probably said that we're starving or have heard our stomachs rumble. Fortunately, when our bodies or our clocks tell us that it's time to eat we have options. We're able to go to the grocery store, or fix a meal, or pull out some snacks, or stop to get fast-food, or even dine at an elegant restaurant.

five seconds. In our own community, people who are homeless or who have lost jobs during the recession or who are barely surviving on subsistence-level wages experience hunger.

We're Called to Help

Helping to alleviate hunger is something that we are called to do. In these familiar verses from Matthew, Jesus tells us "for I was hungry and you gave me food. I was thirsty and you gave me drink...As you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me."

What You Can Do

Each year, members of Trinity join people other churches in Tallahassee in the CROP Walk that raises funds to combat hunger locally and around the world. Your participation in the CROP Walk or as a sponsor of a walker will help in the efforts to feed the hungry and to address the causes of hunger. This year's CROP walk will take place on November 11th at Lake Ella. If you'd like to be a part of this mission project, please pick up forms at the Welcome Center or contact Gloria Colvin (gpcolvin@yahoo.com) or Phyllis McCranie (pamccranie@embarqmail.com).

Others in the World Suffer

In this country of plenty, with its well-stocked grocery stores and abundant restaurants, real hunger is something we don't often think about. Yet according to figures provided by Church World Service, the number of people who don't have enough to eat is staggering. In the U.S., more than 43 million Americans lack enough to eat. Worldwide, over 1 billion people—one out of every seven people—are hungry. Each day almost 16,000 children die from hunger-related causes – one every Trinity has been an ardent supporter of CROP Walk for many years. This is a photo from the CROP walk in 2010.

Bowling night is always lots of fun! Especially with volunteers like Cody and Ashley Swoboda, and Sarah and Matthew Christovich.

Youth Happenings in October

Kelly Rains      John Freeze
Youth Director    Youth Intern

A Note from Kelly ...

So, I am heading to the doctor right now. It's not my favorite thing to do; in fact I actually hate it for many reasons. It's something I have to do every 6 months whether I like it or not. Over 10 years ago I was diagnosed with melanoma (skin cancer) and I have been seeing a dermatologist regularly ever since. Luckily, they caught mine early but now it is very important for me to keep my appointments no matter how inconvenient that might be. There are plenty of other things I need to do this morning than spend hours at the doctor's office. But I go because it's important and it keeps me healthy!

It's the same way with other things in life, right? Who ever really enjoys the dentist? Who likes taking their car in for maintenance? Who likes doing taxes? Who likes doing yard work? (OK, there may be a few of you who actually enjoy it but most of us would rather be at the beach.) Unfortunately, I think there are a few people who think this way about coming to church. For most of us, we love it here at Trinity; we can't imagine being anywhere else, or not having this family to go through life with. The idea of having our children grow up here, get baptized and confirmed here, even married here goes without question. We can't imagine calling any other church home. But for others, they see church as something they should do or have to do, rather than something they want to do or get to do. I know it has made all the difference with my family and probably yours too. I just wish we could convince others of the same thing. Church is important and it keeps us healthy! Aren't we lucky to call Trinity home?
